

DELV ONLINE PRIVACY POLICY

Last Revised on July 2, 2024

This Privacy Policy for DELV (“DELV,” “we,” “us” and “our”) describes how we collect, use and disclose about users of our websites (including <https://delv.tech> and <https://www.hyperdrive.trade>, as well as their subdomains), applications, services, tools, and features (collectively, the “Services”). For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, “you” and “your” means you as the user of the Services.

We will notify you of any changes to this Privacy Policy. Notice includes but is not restricted to posting a link to the new Privacy Policy, posting a new Privacy Policy, or uploading a banner on our Services referencing our new Privacy Policy. Such change will be effective after DELV has given notice of the change. Please review the Privacy Policy periodically to see whether it has changed. Any use of the Services by you after we provide notice to you constitutes your acceptance of those modifications.

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully. By using, accessing, or downloading any of the Services, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy and consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of your information as described herein. If you do not agree to this Privacy Policy or consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of your information as described herein, you may not access or use the Services.

1. HOW WE COLLECT AND USE YOUR INFORMATION

We care about our privacy, and we care about yours too. We work to limit the types of data we collect to just that data we think necessary to provide, improve and develop our Services and to comply with applicable law. We do not ask you to provide personal information to use the Services. However, you may elect to share certain information with us. If you do, you consent to our collection and use of that information in a manner consistent with this Privacy Policy.

When you access or use our Services or otherwise engage with us, we may collect, or engage a service provider to collect, the following information:

- Publicly available information such as your wallet address. We use this information to provide the Services.
- Anonymous, aggregated information about your use of the Services, including session information (such as duration), inbound traffic source, and other page analytics. We use this information to gain insights on how users are using our Services.
- Any information that you choose to include in communications with us, for example when contacting us regarding a DELV bug bounty program. We use this information to respond to your communications or fulfill the purposes of the communication.
- Any information and content that you choose to provide through the DELV Discord Server, the DELV GitHub Portal or the DELV Documentation Portal, as well as information about your engagement with that server or those portals. We use this information to respond to your communications or fulfill the purpose of those communications. See Section 5 below for further information.
- IP addresses to block access to the Services from certain jurisdictions and for other security and compliance-related purposes. IP addresses may also be collected and used by our service providers to conduct visitor analytics and to improve their services, such as enhancing usability and developing new features. We do not retain IP addresses, and IP addresses are anonymized when used for visitor analytics purposes.

In addition to the specific uses of information described above, we may use all of the above information to provide, maintain, improve and develop the Services, including as we describe in our Terms of Service; to comply with any applicable legal obligations; to enforce any applicable terms of service; to prevent and detect fraud and other illegal activity; to log and remedy crashes that may occur in the Services; and to protect or defend the Services, our rights, or the rights of our users or others. We may also collect and use information for any other purpose with your consent.

2. HOW WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION

We may share information about you with third parties in the following circumstances:

- To third parties that provide services to us, including but not limited to fraud prevention and analytics providers.
- To comply with applicable law or any obligations thereunder.
- In response to lawful requests or legal process, including cooperation with law enforcement, judicial orders, and regulatory inquiries.
- To protect the rights and property of the company or our agents, employees, customers, or others, including to enforce any applicable terms of service.
- In the event of a business transaction, such as the sale or transfer of all or a part of our business or assets.
- With your consent.

3. PROCESSING, STORING & TRANSFERRING YOUR INFORMATION

We may process, store, and transfer your information in and to a foreign country, with different privacy laws that may or may not be as comprehensive as United States law. In these circumstances, the governments, courts, law enforcement, or regulatory agencies of that country may be able to obtain access to your information through the laws of the foreign country.

4. DO NOT TRACK SIGNALS AND DISABLING COOKIES

Many of our Services do not use cookies. The DELV Discord Server, the DELV GitHub Portal and the DELV Documentation Portal are made available through on third-party platforms that may use cookies or other automatic data collection technologies to collect certain information about your equipment, browsing actions, and patterns for the purposes described above. You may refuse to accept browser cookies by activating the appropriate setting on your browser. However, if you select this setting, you may be unable to access certain parts of the Services.

Your browser settings may allow you to transmit a “Do Not Track” signal when you visit various websites. Like many websites, the Services are not designed to respond to “Do Not Track” signals received from browsers.

5. USER GENERATED CONTENT

The Services host or otherwise link to the DELV Discord Server (<https://delv.tech/discord>), the DELV GitHub Portal (<https://github.com/delvtech>) or the DELV Documentation Portal (documents providing information about our products, which are accessible via links on our product-specific subdomains and hosted by a third party – e.g., GitBook), which users may elect to review, join and/or participate in.

Through your participation, you may submit or post content, such as questions, concerns, documentation, guides, tutorials, etc. (“User-Generated Content” or “UGC”). You hereby grant us a royalty-free, fully paid-up, sublicensable, transferable, perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide license to copy and use your UGC for any purpose.

If you choose to submit UGC to any public area of the Services, your UGC will be accessible by anyone. Please note that we do not control who will have access to the UGC that you choose to make available to others or make public, and we cannot ensure that parties who have access to such information will respect your privacy or keep it secure.

6. SOCIAL FEATURES

Certain features of the Services permit you to initiate interactions between the Services and third-party services or platforms, such as social networks (“Social Features”). Social Features include features that allow you to click and access our pages on certain third-party platforms, such as X, and from there to “like” or “share” our content on those platforms. Use of Social Features may entail a third party’s collection and/or use of your information, and such collection and use of your information is subject to the third party’s privacy policy. If you use Social Features or similar third-party services, information you post or otherwise make accessible may be publicly displayed by the third-party service you are using. Both DELV and the third party may have access to information about you and your use of both the Services and the third-party service. For more information on third-party websites and platforms, see Section 7.

7. THIRD PARTY CONTENT AND SERVICES

We may provide links to websites or other online platforms or services operated by third parties (e.g., wallet integrations and the DELV Discord Server). If you choose to interact with those third parties, including if you connect your digital wallet to the Services through one of the compatible third-party software wallets, those third parties may collect personal information from or about you. We do not guarantee and are not responsible for the privacy or security practices of these third parties, including but not limited to their use and/or disclosure of personal information. Any use of such a third-party service is subject to that third party’s terms of service, and any information submitted by you directly to a third party is subject to that third party’s privacy policy. Information you provide on public or semi-public venues, including information you share on third-party social networking platforms (such as X) may also be viewable by other users of the Services and/or users of those third-party online platforms.

8. DATA SECURITY

We maintain administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect the information we maintain against unauthorized access or disclosure. However, despite our best efforts, no security measures are perfect or impenetrable, and we cannot guarantee “perfect security.” Please note that any information you send to us electronically, while using the Services or otherwise interacting with us, may not be secure when it is transmitted to us. We recommend that you do not use unsecure channels to communicate sensitive or confidential information to us. Any information you send us through any means is transmitted at your own risk.

9. DATA RETENTION

Except as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law or regulation, we will only retain your information for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, business or reporting requirements. Under some circumstances we may anonymize your information so that it can no longer be associated with you. We reserve the right to use such anonymous and de-identified data for any legitimate business purpose without further notice to you or your consent.

10. ACCESSING AND CORRECTING YOUR INFORMATION

If you have the right to request access to, or the correction of, the information that we hold about you under applicable law, email us at privacy@delv.tech indicating that you would like to review, verify and/or correct such information.

We may request specific information from you (a) to help us confirm your identity and your rights under applicable law and (b) to provide you with the information that we hold about you or make your requested changes.

Please note that you may not have such rights under applicable law. Applicable law may also allow or require us to refuse to provide you with access to some or all of the information that we hold about you, or we may have destroyed, erased, or made your information anonymous in accordance with our record retention obligations and practices.

11. WITHDRAWING CONSENT

Where you have provided your consent to the collection, use, and transfer of your information, you may have the legal right to withdraw your consent under certain circumstances. To withdraw your consent, if applicable, contact us at privacy@delv.tech.

12. HOW TO CONTACT US

Should you have any questions or complaints about our privacy practices or this Privacy Policy, please email us at privacy@delv.tech or contact us at:
